Upcoming Programs

Sunday, March 11, 2012, 10:00 a.m. "Our Oneness in Compassion: A Quantum Physics View," presented by Dean Hinmon.

Sunday, March 18, 2012, 10:00 a.m. "Dalit Rights Are Human Rights: The Struggle of a Broken People," presented by Rebecca Malke and John Eliganti.

Sunday, March 18, 2012, 10:00 a.m. 10:00 a.m. "The Global Politics of Water: Managing Our Most Precious Resource in the 21st Century," presented by Oriol Miroso.

In this talk, Oriol Miroso will provide an overview of the global water challenges that humanity is facing in the 21st century. Oriol will discuss how states and a range of other public and private actors are attempting to meet these challenges at the international level, paying particular attention to the new forms of global water governance that have emerged in the last two decades. The presentation will conclude with a review of the two main approaches to water management currently being debated at the global level – 'water as a commodity' and 'water as a human right' – and their implications for people's access to water.

News and Announcements

Prairie Book Club will meet next on Sunday, March 4, to discuss Ten Nobodies (and Their Somebodies) by Prairie's own Marty Drapkin. Please note that the meeting has been moved from February 26 to March 4.

Join us for an Adult/Child Book Discussion Suzanne Collins has written a trilogy for young adults and we know that several of our Prairie RE students have read them: The Hunger Games, Catching Fire, Mockingjay. These books just beg to be discussed, because they deal with themes of war, life and death, friendship, loyalty, etc. So we are going to have a session to discuss these themes on March 11 at Prairie after the service. It is not necessary to read the books to join us. We will give a quick plot summary for those who haven't read the books, but that will include spoilers, so be aware of that. We definitely encourage the parents of children who have read these books to join us. Light snacks will be available. Contact Erin Bosch or Lynn Pawelski for more information.

The next Spanish Speakers Potluck will be held on Monday, March 19, at the home of Amy Schulz, 2304 S. Syene Rd. Please call Amy at 273-2639 for directions, or Rosemary Dorney at 238-4382 for more information or to arrange a ride.

Save the date! Prairie's Spring Retreat will be held on April 27 – April 29 at Bethel Horizons Nature Center.
