

PRAIRIE UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST SOCIETY

Sunday, July 18, 2004

Prelude

Welcome

Chalice Lighting - The Rev. Sarah Oelberg
Moment of Silent Meditation

Joys and Concerns

Hymn #134 - *Our World Is One World

Pledging Allegiance
The Rev. Sarah Oelberg

Offering
Introduction of Guests and Visitors
Prairie Announcements

Hymn #159 - *This Is My Song
Closing Words

Greet Your Neighbor

*stand as you are able

Announcements

Prairie Book Club announces a correction. The next meeting is Sunday, July 25 (not today), and the book will be A Fine Balance by Rohinton Mistry. Mary Mullen has a copy to lend if you need one. (The August meeting on the 15th will be on Reading Lolita in Tehran.)

Prairie Board meets today after the service.

Prairie Fire submissions are due today. Please call or e-mail Dan Proud at 661-0776 or prouds@tds.net.

Adult Education series continues on Tuesday evenings at 7:00 p.m. The topic of "Challenge Corporate Power" (July 20) alternates with discussion of the war in Iraq (July 27). Discussions are open to the public. For more information, contact Nancy Graham at 244-6495.

Homeless Men's Breakfast needs volunteers from Prairie. If you can buy food or serve breakfast Tuesday, July 27, please talk to Paula Pachciarz.

GOVOTE Coalition is busy registering voters. Volunteers are needed to register voters or give out information every week this summer. Contact Dan Proud (661-0776) for more information.

Coming Out, Coming Together Gay Pride March is today, assembling at 1:30 on the Capitol Square. Show up and show you care.

Calendar

Tuesday, July 20, 7:00pm Adult Ed: "Challenge Corporate Power"

Sunday, July 25, 10:00am "Same-Sex Marriage: a UU Perspective."

Sunday, July 25, 11:45am Prairie Book Club, A Fine Balance.

Tuesday, July 27, 5:00am Make Breakfast at Men's Drop-In Shelter

Tuesday, July 27, 7:00pm Adult Education Series on Iraq War .

Sunday, August 1, 10:00am Four-congregations service in Sauk City.