Prelude - Let the Mystery Be by Iris Dement played by Dan Proud and Mary Mullen

Everybody is a-wonderin' what and where they all came from.
Everybody is worryin' about where they're gonna go when the whole thing's done.
But no one knows for certain and so it's all the same to me.
I think I'll just let the mystery be.

Some say once you're gone, you're gone forever, and some say you're gonna come back.
Some say you rest in the arms of the Savior if in sinful ways you lack.
Some say that they're comin' back in a garden, bunch of carrots and little sweet peas.
I think I'll just let the mystery be.

Some say they're goin' to a place called Glory and I ain't saying it ain't a fact.
But I've heard that I'm on the road to Purgatory and I don't like the sound of that.
I believe in love and I live my life accordingly.
But I choose to let the mystery be.

Welcome - Anne Lundin, lay minister & Vice President of Prairie

*Hymn #389 - Round - Gathered Here

Chalice Lighting - #448

We gather this hour as people of faith, With joys and sorrows, gifts and needs.
We light this beacon of hope, sign of our quest for truth and meaning, in celebration of the life we share together.

All Things Bright and Beautiful

tune recalled from Mary Mullen's childhood

Words by Cecil Frances Alexander pub. 1848, Ireland

She was married to the Rt. Rev. W. Alexander who became the Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of Ireland.

Refrain

F C F C F

All things bright + beau-ti-ful, All crea-tures great and small,

F C F C F

All things wise + won-der-ful, The Lord God made them all,

Verses

F C F

1. Each lit-tle flow'r that o-pens, Each lit-tle bird that sings,
 2. The pur-ple head-ed moun-tain, The ri-ver run-ning by,
 3. The cold wind in the win-ter, The pleas-ant sum-mer sun,
 4. The tall trees in the green-wood, The mea-dows where we play,
 5. He gave us eyes to see - them, And lips that we might tell

F C F C F

1. He made their glow-ing co-lors, He made their ti-my wings.
 2. The sun-set and the morn-ing, That brighten up the sky.
 3. The ripe fruits in the gar-den, He made them ev-ry one.
 4. The rush-es in the wa-ter, We ga-ther ev-ry day.
 5. How great is God Al-might-y, Who has made all things well.

Cecil Frances Alexander wrote over 400 hymns including "Jesus Calls Us Over the Tumult," "Once in Royal David's City," and "There Is a Greenhill Far Away."
