Green Tip Try out paying your bills online and receiving bank statements online. Not only will you save on postage and reduce the clutter in your house, you will save trees, too!

Joint Thanksgiving Eve Service at First Society This annual service unites the congregations and the choirs of the three area UU churches. The service will be held at 7pm. If you are interested in singing in the combined choir, contact music director Barb Park for more information.

Soup Sunday! Plan to stay after the service and enjoy lunch with your Prairie friends. No need to cook, the RE committee has it all taken care of for you! If you are able, a donation of $5 per adult and $3 per child is requested. If you are visitor today, enjoy lunch on us.

Prairie's Women's Group (also known as WOW) will be getting together for breakfast potluck and conversation on Saturday, December 4th at 9am here at Prairie. We will be making gift baskets to distribute. Please contact Kathy Converse (conversekrtn@msn.com) for more information or to get on the mailing list.

Feed the Hungry We're looking for two people to cook and serve breakfast next Saturday, December 4, at the Men's Drop-In Shelter on the Capital Square. You will be working with a volunteer or two from James Reeb Society to feed about 70 hungry men. If you would like to volunteer for this Saturday or a future Saturday, or would like more information, please contact Paula Pachciarz (273-4806; pjpchz@gmail.com)

Prairie UU Society Bond of Union

We, the members of Prairie, wish to associate ourselves together in a religious community which affirms that we share a common humanity, that we need one another, and that our futures are inescapably bound together. Together we would expand our intellectual horizons, enrich our sensory experiences, and deepen our emotional sensitivities. We would sharpen our ethical awareness and broaden our sense of social responsibility. We would stand tall in our quest for integrity of life, yet not at others' expense. As the prairie stretches out until it becomes one with the sky, let us reach out to touch and be one with the natural world, and with one another.

Principles of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Next week's service:

"This I Believe," presented by a panel of Prairie members.
