Green Note Though most vegetable gardens are filled with annual plants, there are some perennials you can add to the mix as well, including asparagus, onions, and garlic. For more

Humanist Union welcomes Fred Edwords

The United Coalition of Reason, led by Fred Edwords, is an organization created for the purpose of developing coalitions of local humanist, freethought, atheist, Ethical Culture and similar organizations all around the country. The Coalition launched an advertising campaign of billboards and bus ads (“Are you good without God? Millions are”) to help existing local groups connect with interested persons in their areas. The Humanist Union is delighted to welcome this nationally and internationally known humanist to our April 3rd meeting to show us his PowerPoint presentation on the ad campaigns. We will start with our usual potluck lunch at 11:45 am, with the presentation and discussion from 12:30 to 1:30 pm. All interested are encourage to attend.

Food, Faith & Earth Day Event 2011: Building Community

This April, Sustain Dane is coordinating a day-long conference around the central role food plays in our lives. Food, Faith & Earth Day is both hands-on and inspirational, with representatives from a number of faith communities presenting panels, workshops, a keynote address and ending, of course, with a family-style meal. Join your neighbors from many faith traditions on Sunday, April 3 at James Reeb Congregation (2146 East Johnson Street, Madison, WI 53704-4727), from 1 pm - 7 pm. For more information and to register for the family-style dinner, catered by Underground Food Collective (cost: $12), go to:

Prairie UU Society Bond of Union

We, the members of Prairie, wish to associate ourselves together in a religious community which affirms that we share a common humanity, that we need one another, and that our futures are inescapably bound together. Together we would expand our intellectual horizons, enrich our sensory experiences, and deepen our emotional sensitivities. We would sharpen our ethical awareness and broaden our sense of social responsibility. We would stand tall in our quest for integrity of life, yet not at others' expense. As the prairie stretches out until it becomes one with the sky, let us reach out to touch and be one with the natural world, and with one another.

Principles of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Next week's service:

"A Humanist Look at Myth, Symbol, and Art," presented by Fred Edwords.
