Closing Words

Greet Your Neighbor

*please stand as you are able.

please wait for the microphone before speaking; this allows those using the assistive listening devices to hear.

Green Note Shut down and unplug electronics. Make small changes to use – and pay for – less energy, like shutting down your computer when you're not using it and plugging your cell phone and other electronics into power strips so you can turn several devices off with one switch.

Humanist Union to Discuss New Dawkins Book A new illustrated book by Richard Dawkins, The Magic of Reality: How We Know What's Really True, came out earlier this month. John Rummel, currently deeply into his copy, will lead our discussion 12:30 - 1:30 pm today. We will start with our usual potluck lunch at 11:45 am.

The next Spanish Speakers Potluck will be held on Monday, November 14 at 6:30 pm at the home of Kate Tucker. All are welcome to attend. Please call Kate at 221-2168 for directions or Rosemary Dorney (in advance) at 238-4382 to arrange a ride.

The Prairie Elders will meet on Tuesday, November 22, at 1:30pm at Oakwood Village West. The topic of discussion will be earliest memories. Bring along a few photos to help trigger memories!

Prairie's Auction and the next Soup Sunday will be on Sunday, November 13. Stay after the service to have a bowl of soup from the Women's Bean Project, and to bid on auction items!

Prairie UU Society Bond of Union

We, the members of Prairie, wish to associate ourselves together in a religious community which affirms that we share a common humanity, that we need one another, and that our futures are inescapably bound together. Together we would expand our intellectual horizons, enrich our sensory experiences, and deepen our emotional sensitivities. We would sharpen our ethical awareness and broaden our sense of social responsibility. We would stand tall in our quest for integrity of life, yet not at others' expense. As the prairie stretches out until it becomes one with the sky, let us reach out to touch and be one with the natural world, and with one another.

Principles of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Next week's service:

"John Coltrane and the Truly Religious Life," presented by James Galasinski.
