Announcements

Green Note: Many idle electronics—TVs, DVD players, stereos, microwaves—use energy even when switched off to keep display clocks lit and remote controls working. Switch off power strips and unplug electrical devices when you're not using them.

The Humanist Union's monthly meeting on Sunday July 6 will start with a potluck lunch at 12:00 pm. Then from 12:30 to 1:30 pm Bob Park will lead an informal discussion on “What can low power FM (LPFM) radio do for humanists and freethinkers?” Bob recommends reading The Case for Radio on the First Unitarian Society website at <http://fusmadison.org/voice>.

The next Spanish Speakers Potluck will be held on Monday, July 28, at 6:30 pm at the home of Amy Schulz, 2304 S. Seyene Rd. All levels of Spanish speakers are welcome, including beginners! Bring a dish to pass if you can -- all are welcome! Please contact Rosemary Dorney (238-4382) for more information or to arrange a ride.

Stay after the service for a send-off for Rebecca Malke-Eliganti, Prairie's DRE. After 8 years with Prairie's youth, her time with us is drawing to a close. Please stay after the service for a send-off party with cake and punch!

Prairie's Book Club will discuss Legends of the Fall by Jim Harrison on July 13 after the service. According to the Goodreads website, the book “confirmed Jim Harrison's reputation as one of the finest American writers of his generation.” Suggested by Mary Mullen.

The Prairie Elders will meet on Tuesday, July 22, at 1:30 pm in the Nakoma Room, Heritage Oaks Building, Oakwood Village West. This month's topic is , “Iraq: What Should We Do?” For more information, call Rosemary Dorney (238-4382) or Donna Murdoch (238-3802). If convenient, bring your own beverage cup and a few snacks. If not convenient, don't worry about it, and come anyway. Newcomers are always welcome!

Prairie UU Society Bond of Union

We, the members of Prairie, wish to associate ourselves together in a religious community which affirms that we share a common humanity, that we need one another, and that our futures are inescapably bound together. Together we would expand our intellectual horizons, enrich our sensory experiences, and deepen our emotional sensitivities. We would sharpen our ethical awareness and broaden our sense of social responsibility. We would stand tall in our quest for integrity of life, yet not at others' expense. As the prairie stretches out until it becomes one with the sky, let us reach out to touch and be one with the natural world, and with one another.

Principles of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Next week's service:

“The Courage to Create,” by James Galasinski.
