Greet Your Neighbor

*Please stand as you are able.

Al Nettleton is today’s tech assistant.

We will share our offering for the rest of the year with Beacon House, the homeless day shelter which opened Oct. 16. The shelter offers laundry facilities, counseling, and help finding employment, as well as a place to stay warm and fed during the day. Prairie is trying to do its part!

Prairie Elders will meet on Tuesday, November 28, at 1:30 p.m. in the Annex. All Prairie members and friends of retirement age are welcome! Bring a snack to pass if convenient. Coffee and tea provided.

Introduction to Prairie! We try to do an informational meeting for new members and recent visitors twice a year, spring and fall. Our fall session will be Saturday morning, December 2, from 9 a.m. until 12 noon in the Meeting House. Child care can be provided if requested. This is what typically happens at these gatherings—The meeting will be attended by newcomers plus a few veteran Prairie members. First, we will share our personal religious backgrounds and journeys. Next, Rev. Sandy and Rick Ruecking will briefly share some UU history, some Prairie history, and how Prairie is currently organized and operates. There will be a continental breakfast. Please contact Erin Bosch to RSVP (hillfarms2002 at yahoo.com).

Spanish Speakers Potluck will meet on Monday, December 11, at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Emma Pachon. Please bring a dish to pass if convenient. If not, come anyway! Contact Rosemary Dorney at 298-0843 for more information.

The Book Club will meet Sunday, December 10, after the service to discuss Hillbilly Elegy: A Memoir of a Family and Culture in Crisis, by J.D. Vance.

Prairie UU Society Bond of Union

We, the members of Prairie, wish to associate ourselves together in a religious community which affirms that we share a common humanity, that we need one another, and that our futures are inescapably bound together. Together we would expand our intellectual horizons, enrich our sensory experiences, and deepen our emotional sensitivities. We would sharpen our ethical awareness and broaden our sense of social responsibility. We would stand tall in our quest for integrity of life, yet not at others’ expense. As the prairie stretches out until it becomes one with the sky, let us reach out to touch and be one with the natural world, and with one another.

Principles of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Next week's service:

"What Better Time," by Rev. Sandra Ingham.
