

JOHN GARDNER DORNEY

June 1, 1961 - March 3, 1989

Prairie Unitarian Universalist Society

April 9, 1989
4:30 p.m.

John Gardner Dorney

A CELEBRATION OF LIFE

"Moonlight Sonata," cello suites (Beethoven)

"Hey, Jude" (the Beatles)

The early John (Rosemary Dorney, Jenny Drapkin)

John at camp (David Lake, Bill McMahon)

A Folk Medley (Ruth Calden, George Calden, Dodie Chapru)

"I'll be down at the shops, Ma" (Carolyn Briggs, Jenny Drapkin)

Those were strange times . . . (Rosemary Dorney)

"Vincent" (Don McLean)

Tributes and consolations . . .

"Forever Young" (Rod Stewart)

John and chess (Timothy Fast)

Memories and comments from those present

"Dona Nobis Pacem" (We will all sing it once in unison and then, as a round, three times through.)

.

All are welcome to stay and share a meal. If you can't stay for a meal, please do have coffee and cake.

While we have so many of John's and our friends together, we would like to urge any of you who have thoughts or memories of John that you would be willing to put on paper and send to us please to do so. We return to Albuquerque soon, but our address there is: 315
Hermosa Dr., N.E., Albuquerque, NM 87108.
Our phone number is (505) 260-0788.

We would also like to thank our fellow and sister Prairie Unitarian-Universalists who more than rose to the occasion in contributing time, space, facilities, creativity, sound engineering skills, love and support to us during this time that was so much more difficult because we were 1400 miles away.

John's parents,

Timothy Fast & Rosemary
Dorney