Hanukkah Song

The Hebrew Hanukkah, or Festival of Lights, was first celebrated in November, 165 B.C. The festival continues for eight days, and a candle is lit for each day. A special candle, called the Shamos, is used for lighting the others. The words here are sung to an old Yiddish folk song.

Allegro

O Ha-nuk-kah, O Ha-nuk-kah, come light the me-no-rah! Let's have a par-ty, we'll all dance the ho-rah. Gath-er round the ta-ble, we'll give you a treat, S'vi-vo-nim to play with, le-vi-vot to eat. And while we are play-ing, The can-dles are burn-ing- low. One for each night, They-shed a sweet light, To re-mind us of days long a-go.

One for each night, They shed a sweet light, To re-mind us of days long a-go.
