

Prairie Unitarian-Universalist Society
Madison, Wisconsin
November 9, 1997

Prelude	The Ethnic Connection
Welcome	Barbara Park
Chalice Lighting	Warren Hagstrom
Hymn: Let Us Break Bread Together, #406, UUA Hymnal
Joys and Sorrows
Bulbes, a song about potatoes	The Ethnic Connection
An example of culinary rituals, from How to Talk Minnesotan , by Howard Mohr —Barbara Rames, Reid Miller, and Warren Hagstrom
Some other culinary rituals— the structure of an ordinary American meal the Jewish dietary laws and how the Christians changed things
	Warren Hagstrom
Discussion
Hymn (programmed with apologies to some): Coffee, Coffee, Coffee, #101, Prairie Song Book
Offering
Introduction of Guests and Visitors
Prairie Announcements
Closing words: “Revel with Bacchus, or eat a dry crust with Jesus, but never sit down without one of the gods.” —D. H. Lawrence	