

Sesquicentennial of Religious Liberty in Wisconsin

In keeping with the 150th anniversary of the State of Wisconsin, the James Reeb Society, Prairie Society, and Sauk County Freethinkers, will provide an historical perspective of liberal religious thought in Wisconsin on Sunday, July 26 at 10:00 a.m. at Park Hall in Sauk City. The program will be followed by a pot luck lunch on the grounds.

Each of the congregations will provide a group of three or four readings, poems, or songs around the following themes. Each congregation will have up to 15 minutes to present their material.

Free Congregation- the early free thought movement

Prairie Society-native american religion

James Reeb Society- liberal Christianity and Judaism

Program Outline

Welcome

Hymn

Native American

Free thought

Liberal Christianity

Music

Closing