

Prairie Unitarian-Universalist Society
Madison, Wisconsin
November 19, 2000

"If a man really wanted to make a million dollars, the best way would be to start his own religion." "Of course, anything is a religion that treats of the spirit. And also, parliaments don't attack religions." —L. Ron Hubbard, founder of the Church of Scientology

"There's a sucker born every minute." —P.T. Barnum, Showman and Universalist layman

Musical Prelude—Heather Lawrence

Welcome: Erin Bosch, President

Chalice Lighting. Minute of Meditation

Joys and Sorrows

Children's Song: "That's a Lot of Applesauce" — Warren Hagstrom
(Children leave for religious education)

Song: "Wizard Oil" (distributed separately) —the Congregation, Doleta Chapru on piano

"Religions as Rackets" — Warren Hagstrom

Discussion

Introduction of Guests and Visitors

Prairie Announcements

Closing Song: "Give Me That Old-Time (or Not So Old) Religion" (lyrics on reverse)

Dilbert

Scott Adams

