

Shirley Holzman Grindrod Durkin
April 22, 1921—October 3, 2001

In loving memory of Shirley

---

Requiem	Gabriel Fauré	Sharing of Favorite Stories and Remembrances (Shirley was never shy about telling stories— please don't you be.)
Opening Words	Erin Bosch	Responsive Reading, We Remember Them :  In the rising of the sun and in its going down, We remember them. In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, We remember them. In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring, We remember them. In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer, We remember them. In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn, We remember them. In the beginning of the year, and when it ends, We remember them. When we are weary and in need of strength, We remember them. When we are lost and sick at heart, We remember them. When we have joys we yearn to share, We remember them. So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now part of us— As we remember them.
Grandchildren lighting candles
I'll Love You Forever	Allen Power sung by Marli Johnson, accompanied by Doleta Chapru
Memorium	Judy Sadowsky
Largo e Sostenuto from Sonata #7 in D by Franz Josef Haydn	Dave Grindrod
Funeral Blues	poem by W. H. Auden read by Walter Grengg
How Can I Keep from Singing	Traditional hymn Sung by Anna Fiona Grindrod-Feeny, Accompanied by Ed Feeny
Gone From My Sight	from the Midrash read by Paul Grindrod	The Syrinx Claude Debussy
	Shalom Chaverim	Traditional Hebrew song we will sing together as a round.