Prelude—Trevor Stephenson, harpsichord
Sonata in Bb major* by Domenico Scarlatti

Welcome—Kathy Converse

Chalice Lighting —Rose Stephenson

People say, what is the sense of our small effort.
They cannot see that we must lay one brick at a time,
take one step at a time.
A pebble cast into a pond causes ripples that spread in all directions.
Each one of our thoughts, words, and deeds is like that.
No one has the right to sit down and feel hopeless.
There's too much work to do.

Announcements

Earth Charter: At the fall parish meeting on Nov. 16 the Social Action Committee will recommend that the congregation join the General Assembly of the UUA and other UU groups in endorsing the Earth Charter. If you have not seen the Earth Charter document, pick up a copy of the brochure containing it from the kitchen pass-through window to the lobby or visit the international Web site at <http://www.earthcharter.org/>.

Musicians Mastering Mozart: Musicians of most all ages are reminded to make plans to sing or play Mozart music for the December 14 program. If you need an accompanist or need music, mention it to Warren Hagstrom or Doleta Chapru. Merci!

Volunteers Needed: The Religious Education (RE) program needs volunteers to sign up. Please let Anne Urbanski know how you might be able to volunteer this year, such as bringing snacks, calling, providing rides, cleanup, or supplies, or teaching.

Calling All Singles (Gloves and Mittens): Bring in orphan knit gloves or mittens for a Religious Education project. Put them in the box upstairs or hand them over to an R.E. person.
