Joys and Concerns

Choir: "Psalm 120" from Songs for Anything by Jim Reilly
*I cried to the Lord in my distress,
and the Lord heard me:
O Lord, deliver my soul from lying lips
and from a deceitful tongue.
What shall happen to you, false tongue?
What shall happen to you?
Sharp arrows! Red hot coals!
Alas, I am exiled in Mesech,
and I dwell in the tents of Kedar.
My soul dwells with those who hate peace;
I am for peace, but when I speak,
they are for war.*

Welcome to our service! We are glad you are here. Our presider today is our choir director, Barb Park. Our accompanist is Doleta Chapru. Our presenter is musician Jim Reilly, who lives and works in the Twin Cities. He was the Director of Music at First Universalist in Minneapolis in the 1980's. Jim grew up in Universalist churches in New Jersey and in Syracuse, NY, where he met Barb Park and sang with her in the church youth choir! Sarah Lord coordinated this service for the Program Committee
