Rev. Ralph Tyksinski, Minister

Sunday, November 15, 2009

Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free. The wretched refuse of your teeming shore. Send these, the homeless tempest-tossed to me. I lift my lamp beside the golden door.

Inscription on the Statue of Liberty

Prelude

"Carmen, Carmela" Mexican folk song
performed by Karleen Tyksinski

Welcome - Rev. Ralph Tyksinski

Opening Words - From a speech given by Ronald Reagan during this presidency

Doleta Chapru, accompanist

Chalice Lighting

This is our home.

May we remember that others, who have come from far and near

For many different reasons;

Have many different experiences

And also call it home.

May we learn and grow in tolerance together.

Hymn #159 (SLT) - "This Is My Song"

Doleta Chapru, accompanist

Closing Words

May we never rest until every child of earth in every generation is free from all prisons of the mind and of the body and of the spirit; until the earth and the hills and the seas shall dance, and the universe itself resound with the joyful cry: "Behold! I am!"

Green Tip of the Week: Though it's not the right time of the year for thinking about installing a rain barrel, you can beat the rush and order one to be installed in the spring. In addition, the Sustain Dane website, <http://www.rainfordane.org/>, has plenty of other water-conserving tips and products for inside and outside your home.

Book Club The Prairie Book Club is currently reading Here If You Need Me – A True Story by Kate Braestrup. This is the memoir of a middle aged woman who becomes a UU minister after being widowed and serves as a chaplain in Maine's Forest Service. The book club will meet Sunday, November 22nd, at Prairie.

Humanist Union News Humanist Union will meet for a potluck lunch at 11:45 am on December 6th, followed by a 12:30-1:30 pm presentation and discussion on "How We Decide: from Logic to Faith" led by Richard Russell.

Long Range Planning Committee News After the service on Sunday, Nov. 22, Glenda Cosenza, former board president of the Dekalb, Illinois Unitarian Universalist Church will be visiting for a Q&A session about the differences between roles of settled and contract ministers, and the process her congregation undertook when shifting from a contract to settled minister. Please see the related article in the October 22nd issue of the Prairie Fire for more details.
