Hymn #131 (SLT): “Love Will Guide Us,” accompanied by Mary Frantz.

Closing Words:

At the end of the day we know how to reduce and prevent underage drinking. What is lacking is the will to put what we know to work on behalf of our youth.

– David Jernigan

Greet Your Neighbor

*please stand as you are able.

please wait for the microphone before speaking; this allows those using the assistive listening devices to hear.

Announcements

Green Note: Common soaps such as hand soap and dishwashing detergent contain petroleum. Making your own soaps at home might be more work than you want to do, but you can buy a plant-based brand like Seventh Generation and save thousands of oil barrels in the process.

Meet the Minister Lawn Party! Stop by Prairie's meeting house on Saturday, July 14, to meet Reverend Sandra Ingham, the candidate for Prairie's minister! The party starts at 7:00pm. Bring a summer beverage or finger foods if you can. Everyone is welcome!

Reverend Sandra Ingham to speak on July 15 Rev. Ingham will present the Sunday program on July 15. Following the service and Salad Sunday, we will have a Parish Meeting to vote whether to accept Rev. Ingham as our consulting minister. Please attend!

Change to the scheduled Services Please note the change in the Service schedule. Peter Anderson's talk on Jefferson's Contradictions will be on July 1, and Dennis Merritt's talk on The Dairy Farmer's Gude to the Universe will be on July 8.

The Prairie Book Club will meet after the service on June 24 to discuss A Spring without Bees: How Colony Collapse Disorder Has Endangered Our Food Supply, by Michael Schacker. Nonfiction suggested by Barbara Park. Read this review: <http://planbeecentral.wordpress.com/2008/06/04/one-of-the-first-reviews-of-a-spring-without-bees/> to get a sense of the book. It's in hard or soft cover, about 300 pages.

Prairie Elders will meet on Tuesday, June 26, at 1:30pm, Nakoma Room, Heritage Oaks building, Oakwood Village West. This month's topic will be hobbies. If convenient, bring your own beverage cup and a few snacks.

Prairie UU Society Bond of Union

We, the members of Prairie, wish to associate ourselves together in a religious community which affirms that we share a common humanity, that we need one another, and that our futures are inescapably bound together. Together we would expand our intellectual horizons, enrich our sensory experiences, and deepen our emotional sensitivities. We would sharpen our ethical awareness and broaden our sense of social responsibility. We would stand tall in our quest for integrity of life, yet not at others' expense. As the prairie stretches out until it becomes one with the sky, let us reach out to touch and be one with the natural world, and with one another.

Principles of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Next week's service:

“Jefferson's Contradictions,” presented by Peter Anderson.
