“What's New at Holy Wisdom,” by Greg Armstrong

June 29, 2014

Today's Order of Service

Prelude: “Theme from G minor Piano Concerto,” by Sergei Rachmaninoff. Performed by Marcia Johnson

Greeting and Announcements – Mary Mullen

Opening Words:

“The earth will not continue to offer its harvest, except with faithful stewardship. We cannot say we love the land and then take steps to destroy it for use by future generations.”
– John Paul II

Hymn #65 (SLT): “The Sweet June Days,” accompanied by Mary Frantz.

Chalice Lighting: Global Chalice Lighting

We light this chalice
To honour those brave souls
Who spoke their truth,
Who questioned authority,
Who defied orthodoxy.
Their courage speaks to us through this chalice
And encourages us all
To think strongly
To love fully
In our shared quest for truth, beauty and meaning.
– Derek McCullough
Submitted by the Australian and New Zealand Unitarian Association

Announcements

The Humanist Union's monthly meeting on Sunday July 6 will start with a potluck lunch at 11:45 am. Then from 12:30 to 1:30 pm Bob Park will lead an informal discussion on What can low power FM (LPFM) radio do for humanists and freethinkers? Bob recommends reading The Case for Radio on the First Unitarian Society website at <http://fusmadison.org/voice>.

Field Trip to Holy Wisdom and Potluck after the service!

The next Spanish Speakers Potluck will be held on Monday, July 28, at 6:30 pm at the home of Amy Schulz, 2304 S. Seyene Rd. All levels of Spanish speakers are welcome, including beginners! Bring a dish to pass if you can -- all are welcome! Please contact Rosemary Dorney (238-4382) for more information or to arrange a ride.

Rebecca Malke-Eliganti is leaving her position as Prairie's Director of Religious Education. She has accepted an offer from Memorial United Church of Christ, in Fitchburg, to become their Director of Faith Development. She will work at Prairie through the end of June. The good news is though we are losing her as our DRE, she and her family will continue to make Prairie their home church.

Prairie's Book Club will discuss Legends of the Fall by Jim Harrison on July 13 after the service. According to the Goodreads website, the book “confirmed Jim Harrison's reputation as one of the finest American writers of his generation.” Suggested by Mary Mullen.

Prairie UU Society Bond of Union

We, the members of Prairie, wish to associate ourselves together in a religious community which affirms that we share a common humanity, that we need one another, and that our futures are inescapably bound together. Together we would expand our intellectual horizons, enrich our sensory experiences, and deepen our emotional sensitivities. We would sharpen our ethical awareness and broaden our sense of social responsibility. We would stand tall in our quest for integrity of life, yet not at others' expense. As the prairie stretches out until it becomes one with the sky, let us reach out to touch and be one with the natural world, and with one another.

Principles of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Next week's service:

“Patriotic Songs,” led by Mary Mullen.
