

MIDDLETON-Franklin E. French, 89, longtime resident of Middleton, passed away peacefully on July 15, 2016. Frank spent much of his childhood in Canada and later moved to Chicago where he attended college and married Betty Fisher French in 1955. They had four children—Carl French, Barbara French, Kate French (Pat Cook), and Sarah French Gomez (Elias Gomez). In addition, he is survived by six grandchildren and companion Bernice Isaac. Frank enjoyed his career as an educator. He moved to Madison with his family to direct the Portal Foster Center for the developmentally disabled and later Pathways of Wisconsin, which he directed until he retired. He had a keen interest in world events and politics, and never missed a day of reading The New York Times. His wonderful sense of humor entertained his family and friends to the very end. He is dearly missed. A gathering will be held on Saturday, September 17, 2016 from 4-7 pm at GUNDERSON WEST FUNERAL & CREMATION CARE, 7435 University Ave., Middleton. Sharing remembrances at 4:30 pm.
