*Please stand as you are able.
Thank you to Al Nettleton, today’s tech assistant.

We will share our offering this month with the Tenant Resource Center, which provides information and counseling to help resolve tenant-landlord problems in Dane County. The center also provides services to homeless people and those facing homelessness.

The Prairie Book Club will meet in the Annex after the service on Sunday, January 21, to discuss To Dance with the White Dog by Terry Kay. The Book Club is open to everyone. You do need to have read the book to attend.

The next Soup Sunday will be held after the service on January 21.

We Prairie folks have a standing invitation to the Sustainable Saturday Night Dinners at James Reeb Unitarian Universalist Congregation, 2146 E. Johnson Street, on the East Side of Madison. These take place the last Saturday of the month; the next one is Saturday, January 27th, from 5:30 to 8:30. These are potluck events. (Call 242-8887 or go to jruc.org for more information.)

The theme for RE in January is INTENTION. You won’t want to miss the RE supplied treat this month at Soup Sunday! We are beginning to recruit volunteers for February – the theme will be CONNECTION. Contact Holly Tellander if interested.

Volunteer Opportunity: Would you like to help make breakfast at the Men’s Homeless Shelter? Prairie’s next opportunity to volunteer with this wonderful organization is Saturday, February 3, at 5:00am. Contact Paula Pachciarz for more information.

Prairie UU Society Bond of Union

We, the members of Prairie, wish to associate ourselves together in a religious community which affirms that we share a common humanity, that we need one another, and that our futures are inescapably bound together. Together we would expand our intellectual horizons, enrich our sensory experiences, and deepen our emotional sensitivities. We would sharpen our ethical awareness and broaden our sense of social responsibility. We would stand tall in our quest for integrity of life, yet not at others' expense. As the prairie stretches out until it becomes one with the sky, let us reach out to touch and be one with the natural world, and with one another.

Principles of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Next week's service:
