“A Look Back at the Sources” by Dawn Hayslett

February 11, 2018

Announcements

Order of Service

Prelude: Performed by Mike Briggs.

Welcome and Announcements: Rev. Sandra Ingham

Opening Words:

“Where's your church?” “We're standing in it.” “But this is a bookstore and it's a Friday.” “Yes, but you might also choose to see it as a cathedral of the human spirit—a storehouse consecrated to the full spectrum of human experience. Just about every idea we've ever had is in here somewhere. A place containing great thinking is a sacred space.” – Forrest Church, A Chosen Faith: An Introduction to Unitarian Universalism

Opening Hymn #123 (SLT): “Spirit of Life” Mike Briggs, Accompanist

Chalice Lighting:

We become not a melting pot but a beautiful mosaic. Different people, different beliefs, different yearnings, different hopes, different dreams. – Jimmy Carter

Story for All Ages: “The Princesses and the Kingshuk Tree,” from Buddha at Bedtime. Read by Larry Hayslett.

Children’s Recessional: by Joyce Poley.

*As you go on your way, may you be filled with gladness.
Go in joy, go in joy!
May fortune bless your day with peace and loving kindness.
Go in love, go in love.*

Joys and Concerns

Silent Meditation

Hymn #128: “For All That is Our Life”

Presentation: “A Look Back at the Sources,” by Dawn Hayslett.

Discussion

Offering and Offertory

Introduction of Guests and Visitors

Closing Hymn #170: “We Are a Gentle, Angry People”

Closing Words:

“Give me your tired, your poor,
Your huddled masses, yearning to breathe free,
The wretched refuse of your teeming shore,
Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost to me,
I lift my lamp beside the golden door.” – Emma Lazarus

Greet Your Neighbor

*Please stand as you are able.

We will share our offering this month with the Tenant Resource Center, which provides information and counseling to help resolve tenant-landlord problems in Dane County. The center also provides services to homeless people and those facing homelessness.

The theme for RE in February is CONNECTION. We can always use volunteers! Contact DRE Holly Tellander for more information.

Prairie’s Service Auction will be held on March 4! We’ll start with a short service led by Rev. Sandy, followed by a continental breakfast. We’ll then move right into the auction! Do you have an item or service you’d like to include in the auction? Contact Patty Stockdale.

The Prairie Book Club will meet in the Annex after the service on Sunday, February 18, to discuss A Gentleman in Moscow by Amor Towles. The Book Club is open to everyone. You do not need to have read the book to attend.

Spanish Speakers Potluck will meet on Monday, February 19, at 6:30 pm, at the home of Amy Schulz, 2304 S. Seyene Road, Madison. All levels of Spanish welcome. Please bring a dish to pass if convenient – if not, come anyway! Contact Rosemary Dorney at 238-4382 for more information or to arrange a ride.

The Board will meet in the Annex on Sunday, February 25, after the service.

The Humanist Union will meet on Sunday, March 11, after the service in the Meeting House. Please note the change in date and location. Humanist Union meetings begin with a potluck lunch at 11:45, and continue with a program from 12:30 to 1:30.

Prairie UU Society Bond of Union

We, the members of Prairie, wish to associate ourselves together in a religious community which affirms that we share a common humanity, that we need one another, and that our futures are inescapably bound together. Together we would expand our intellectual horizons, enrich our sensory experiences, and deepen our emotional sensitivities. We would sharpen our ethical awareness and broaden our sense of social responsibility. We would stand tall in our quest for integrity of life, yet not at others' expense. As the prairie stretches out until it becomes one with the sky, let us reach out to touch and be one with the natural world, and with one another.

Principles of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Next week's service:

"A Mystery Guest: GA Traveling Chalice"
