

Shirley's family wishes to thank all of you for the outpouring of love and support these past days and over the years. Your care, from near and far, has been deeply meaningful and strongly felt.

Following the service, the Lake family would be delighted to greet you personally. Please feel free to visit with us directly after the service ends—or you may wish to partake in refreshments, connect with other guests, or write a memory on the cards provided first.

In honor of Shirley's passion for building community and nurturing relationships, we encourage you to consider contributing to the following organizations in her memory (details can be found in the online obituary at www.cressfuneralservice.com).

The Sentencing Project
The Carter Center
UW Hospital Carbone Cancer Center
The Center for the Victims of Torture

A Service of Remembrance

Shirley Seaman Lake

April 6, 1932—June 22, 2018

Friday, July 13, 2018
Olbrich Botanical Gardens
Madison, WI

A Celebration of the Life of Shirley S. Lake

Officiated by Rev. Susan Shands, Agrace Chaplain

Gathering Music

Ar Hyd y Nos (All Through the Night), trad. Welsh, sung
by Bryn Terfel

Welcome

Reading read by Suzanne Smith
Peace, My Heart by Rabindranath Tagore

Reading & Reflection Jim Lake from The Prophet by Khalil Gibran

Reflection Richard Seaman

Music

Excerpt from Agnus Dei (Adagio for Strings) arranged for choir) by Samuel Barber; performed by the Robert Shaw Festival Singers

Reflection The Phadoongsidhi Family

Readings read by Martin Reames from Mary Oliver & Harold Kushner

Reflection David Lake

Community Reflections (open time of sharing)

In the Quaker tradition, a time of reverent silence is interspersed with brief, spontaneous messages from the heart by the members present. Anyone who feels moved to speak is invited to share thoughts or memories of Shirley that arise in this time of reflection.

Responsive Reading

We Remember Them

Closing Words

The Larger Circle by Wendell Berry

Closing Music

For the Beauty of the Earth, arr. John Rutter

Please silence electronic devices prior to the service. Thank you.