

Order of Service: November 8, 2020 "What Matters"

by Michael Eselun, UCLA Chaplain

Note: This service will be recorded Reader: Dan Zoom helper: Renee

Opening Song: Time in a Bottle by Jim Croce, performed by Ron Frye

Welcome and Announcements: Robin Proud

Opening Words by Pema Chodron

I used to have a sign pinned up on my wall that read:

Only to the extent that we expose ourselves over and over to annihilation can that which is indestructible be found in us...It was all about letting go of everything.

Chalice Lighting by Michael Eselun

As we come together in community in this virtual space, we are very aware of all of which we have had to let go - not the least of which, at the most basic level...coming into physical presence with one another. As we light our own candles, if we choose, to represent the chalice of our community-- we are mindful of this sacred time of coming together on our shared journey of discovery - discovery of that which is indestructible within us.

Silent Meditation

Story for All Ages: The Three Questions by Jon J. Muth, read by Barb Park

Presentation: "What Matters?" by Michael Eselun

Relates to 7th Principle - Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Discussion

Closing Song by Dan Proud

Closing Words by Michael Eselun

I invite you to perhaps close your eyes, and take a few nice deep breaths together. Breathing in the love, the intention, the commitment of this community to come together and to connect despite all that there is now to separate us physically... as we exhale-- can we release the light and the radiance of our coming together... not only back to each other but to the larger circles of life...Let's even stretch our arms out now, right where you are sitting and imagine our embrace of each other and those larger circles of life, getting a sense of our connectedness in a place beyond time and space-- despite the physical isolation of this moment.

As we breathe into that embrace, let's absorb in the words of the poet Rilke as a blessing to ourselves...

Be patient toward all that is unsolved in your heart... Try to love the questions themselves like locked rooms and like books written in a very foreign tongue. Do not seek the answers, which cannot be given to you because you would not be able to live them. Live the questions now. Perhaps you will then gradually, without noticing it, live along some distant day into the answer.

We take this moment to extinguish the flame of our chalice—the worship has ended but our service begins again.

So be it.

Virtual Coffee Hour

Guest/visitor welcome, Joys and Concerns and chatting.

Prairie UU Society Bond of Union

We, the members of Prairie, wish to associate ourselves together in a religious community which affirms that we share a common humanity, that we need one another, and that our futures are inescapably bound together. Together we would expand our intellectual horizons, enrich our sensory experiences, and deepen our emotional sensitivities. We would sharpen our ethical awareness and broaden our sense of social responsibility. We would stand tall in our quest for integrity of life, yet not at others' expense. As the prairie stretches out until it becomes one with the sky, let us reach out to touch and be one with the natural world, and with one another.

We are sharing our Offering this quarter with the The Catalyst Project which is a community of up to four single moms and their kids who are experiencing homelessness. The families gain access to permanent housing and other
