

Shopping Guide for Fair Trade and Non-Sweatshop Clothing

Clean T-shirts for Organizations

Many of these local retailers and websites can provide silk-screened T-shirts and other apparel for your organization. Please ask for clothing from companies like the COMAMUVI co-op distributed by the Presbyterian Church USA, Lifewear, Maggies Organics, No-Sweat, Platinum Sportswear or Unionline because these are not made in sweatshops.

Brands of Union Made Dress Clothing

Brooks Brothers, Hickey Freeman, Hart Shaffner Marx, Ted Baker, Kenneth Cole, Tommy Hilfiger, Austin Reed, Evan Picone, Pierre Cardin, Copley, Burberry, Gieves and Hawkes, Jack Nicholas, J. Press, Matteo Maas, Givenchy, Talbia Uomo, Alexander Julian, Hilton-Oak if made in the U.S.

*in Southern Wisconsin and on the Web
Dress, Leisure, Sports, Spirit, Group, Uniform and Team Wear*

Always check for the Union Label, just to make sure, but the following manufacturers are identified as mostly “clean” or sweatshop free by the organizations identified by code [x] listed at the end of this Guide.

Sources of “sweatfree” verification:
